We will meet Tuesday Oct. 27th at 5:30pm to discuss the book. Everyone is welcome to read and join us.

BOOKS FOR TREATS

Books for treats is a movement which places books into the hands of children, instead of adding more candy to their bag, or bucket. Children are given book options and allowed to choose one. The book they choose becomes their own. Books won't give children cavities or a tummy ache by consuming to much and they will increase knowledge and feed the brain. Children are invited to the library Saturday Oct. 31st between 9:30am and 11:30am to choose their own book for a treat.

BOOK REVIEW

L. Frank Baum's The Wizard of Oz : The Graphic Novel

by Michael Cavallaro
Genre: Local Interest/Graphic

Review by 3 Book Club Girls

We all watched the movie before, but the book has so much more and not everything is the same.

The real story is a bit scarier and not all the "good" people are really good. Everyone has problems but they don't do a great job staying to help each other, always. The friends do end up back together again though.

In the end everybody gets to go home, some of them are new homes, they are in charge of but it's home.

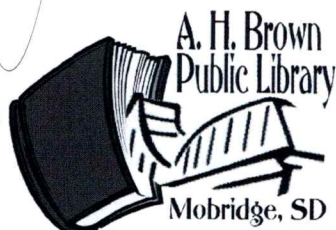

If you have only watched the movie try reading the book.

You will be surprised.
